Examples of why you might want a legal consultation:

- You are not able to complete the online child support worksheet on your own (required in cases involving minor children, even when there is an agreement; see packet instructions)
- Other children were conceived or born during the marriage who are not the husband's children (this is a complicated legal situation which may delay your case if not addressed properly)
- You have questions about how to divide property or debt
- You have questions about how to prepare a parenting time/visitation schedule (required even when there is an agreement, with very limited exception)
