Biography

Judge Clint G. Bearden has served as a Superior Court Judge for the Northeastern Judicial Circuit since his appointment by Governor Nathan Deal in January, 2018. Previously, Bearden served as a Magistrate Judge of the Dawson County Magistrate Court and maintained a general law practice.

Judge Bearden is a proud “Double Dawg,” having received his undergraduate degree from the University of Georgia and his law degree from the University of Georgia School of Law. Additionally, Judge Bearden is a graduate of the Georgia Bar Association’s Young Lawyers Division Leadership Academy, Leadership Dawson County, Leadership Hall County and the Zell Miller Foundation Leadership Institute.

Professionally, he is a member of the American Bar Association, the Georgia Bar Association and the Northeastern Judicial Circuit Bar Association. Judge Bearden is also involved with the Georgia Council of Accountability Court Judges and serves on various committees within the Council of Superior Court Judges, including the Council’s legislative liaison team.

Within the Northeastern Judicial Circuit, Judge Bearden presides over the Hall County Drug Treatment Accountability Court’s Early Intervention, Young Adult and Adult “Bravo” Track courts, one of the largest accountability court programs in the State of Georgia.

Judge Bearden is a lifelong resident of the Northeastern Judicial Circuit and graduated from Dawson County High School. His wife, Jamey, is a Spanish teacher within the Hall County School System and the couple has four children.
